Courses

Courses are mainly 6 ECTS (one block, 8 weeks) or 12 ECTS (two blocks, 16 weeks) and are mostly offered in the first two blocks of the semester. Students are expected to take a minimum of 24 ECTS per semester. A maximum of 36 ECTS per semester is allowed but not recommended since this is a very high workload for 16 weeks.

Students are expected to have an appropriate background in the field they choose. Most of the English taught courses are year 3 courses (final bachelor year); next to these courses there are some courses on a more introductory level as they serve as starting course in one of the minors. Next to these courses, students can take Bachelor's courses from the Exchange Programme - Humanities, with whom the Faculty of Social and Behavioural Sciences collaborates. However, Communication Science students will have second priority in these courses so participation cannot be guaranteed.

The courses offered in the Exchange Programme Social and Behavioural Sciences are organized around the following research priority areas and research focus points:
